BYLAWS

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this organization shall be the VIRGINIA ACL USER'S GROUP, hereinafter referred to as the "GROUP".

ARTICLE II - PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

Section 1. The Group is a statewide organization of individuals involved in the data analysis, auditing and related business oversight activities of their respective organizations.

Section 2. The primary objectives for which this Group is formed shall be to:

- a. Promote the use of ACL software for data analysis, auditing, and business oversight activities.
- b. Provide a forum for the exchange of ideas and methodologies among members.
- c. Provide a channel of communication to ACL Software for matters of common interest to more than a single user. Matters of common interest include, but would not be limited to, status of enhancements, outstanding maintenance problems and potential training opportunities.

ARTICLE III- MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Full Membership. Any organization or individual that has acquired a license to use the ACL software at said organization or by said individual. Membership shall terminate when this condition is no longer met or at the member's request.

Section 2. Associate Membership. ACL Software staff shall be eligible for participation in the Group, but shall not have the privilege to vote.

Section 3. Any individual desiring to become a member of the Group shall make written application upon such form as the Executive Committee may prescribe with a one-time registration fee recommended by the Executive Committee and approved by the majority vote of the members present at any regular meeting of the group. Said application is to be filed with the Group Treasurer. All applications received will be reviewed for eligibility by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE IV - DUES

The dues of members shall be recommended by the Executive Committee and approved by a majority vote of the members present at any regular meeting of the Group. Changes in the dues structure may be initiated from the floor at any regular business meeting, and upon approval of a majority vote of those present, shall be adopted effective the next January 1. Any member of the Group who shall be more than six (6) months in arrears of dues shall be terminated automatically in membership.

ARTICLE V - GROUP OFFICERS

Section 1. The right to vote and hold office is reserved for full members as described in Article III, Section 1, who are in good standing in the Group.

Section 2. Oversight Committee. The initial nominations for members' officers will be made from the floor immediately following adoption of these bylaws. Subsequently, each year the members shall vote for an oversight committee consisting of three (3) active full members in good standing. This committee shall select not less than one (1) name from the full membership in good standing as a candidate for each office which is to be filled at the meeting scheduled for elections. Additional nominations may be made from the floor by any full member in good standing.

Section 3. Officers of the Group shall be: President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. Elected officers of the Group shall serve without compensation and will also comprise the Group Executive Committee. Election of officers will be by simple majority of those eligible members present. Elections will be held annually at the last regularly scheduled meeting of each calendar year. Those elected will assume office on January 1 of the year following, except that those first elected at the meeting to establish the Group will assume office immediately with the period of service prior to January 1 of the year following being in addition to established terms of service.

Section 4. The Group President shall be the prior year's Vice President and shall serve one (1) term of office in addition to any period in which he/she filled a vacancy in the office of the President. The Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer shall be elected annually in accordance with Sections 2 and 3 of this article. The term of office for all elected officers shall be one (1) year or until their successors are elected. A member's status as an officer of the Group shall terminate sixty (60) days after the termination of eligibility as a full member of the Group.

ARTICLE VI - EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section 1. The President shall:

- a) Chair the Executive Committee.
- b) Preside at all meetings (when present).
- c) Designate such other committees as may be deemed necessary, with the approval of the Executive Committee.
- d) Be responsible for day-to-day activities including enforcement of policies set forth.
- e) Be responsible for enforcement of the resolution and proceedings of the Oversight Committee.
- f) Appoint an Operational Review Committee to perform an annual review of the financial statements.
- g) Perform other such duties as may be required.

Section 2. The Vice President shall:

- a) Serve to assist the President and shall perform the duties of President when he/she is unable or unavailable to perform the duties of such.
- b) Oversee the activities of the program committee

Section 3. The Secretary shall:

- a) Conduct the correspondence of the Group including: mailing notices of all regular and special meetings, distributing meeting minutes, and other correspondence as necessary.
- b) Keep minutes and record the proceedings of all meetings of the Group and of the Executive Committee, and preserve all records and letters of continuing value to the Group in a permanent file.
- c) Maintain the organizational membership roster.

Section 4. The Treasurer shall:

- a) Establish and require compliance with procedures for the receipt, disbursement and proper accountability of Group funds.
- b) Maintain records of Group funds and financial transactions.
- c) Report to the general membership at each regularly scheduled meeting on the financial condition of the Group.
- d) Notify members when fees are due, keep an accurate record of fees collected and due, notify Executive Committee of late and overdue fees.
- e) The fiscal year of the Group shall be the calendar year unless otherwise established by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE VII - MEETINGS

Section 1. Regular (potentially quarterly) meetings of the general membership shall be held with dates and times established by the Executive Committee.

Section 2. The Executive Committee shall meet at least yearly and upon call of the Chairman.

Section 3. Special meetings of the Group may be called by the President or a majority of the members of the Executive Committee. Each member must be notified in writing not less than fifteen (15) days before the date of said meeting. The notice shall contain the date, time and place of the special meeting and shall also contain a statement of the reason(s) for such special meeting.

Section 4. A minimum of six (6) full members in good standing is required to hold a meeting of the Group.

Section 5. Meetings shall be conducted in accordance with these bylaws, Robert's Rules of Order (available at HTTP://www.robertsrules.com), and policies or procedures, established by the Group, or the Executive Committee.

Section 6. At least two (2) members of the Executive Committee, one of whom must be either President or Vice President, shall be in attendance at any general meeting of the Group.

ARTICLE VIII- AMENDMENTS

These bylaws may be amended at any regular meeting by a two-thirds vote of those members present. Amendments must either be proposed by the Executive Committee or by a petition signed by at least twenty-five percent (25%) of the members eligible to vote and presented to the chairman of the Executive Committee. A copy of the proposed amendment shall be mailed to each member not less than thirty (30) days prior to the meeting. Every member of the Group shall be provided a copy of the amendment as approved.

ARTICLE IX - QUORUM

A simple majority of voting members present at any meeting of the Group shall constitute a quorum. A simple majority of the members of the Executive Committee shall constitute a quorum of that body.

ARTICLE X - PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

"Robert's Rules of Order" (revised) shall govern the procedure of this Group in all cases where they are applicable.

ARTICLE XI- VACANCIES

Section 1. In the event of a vacancy in the offices of President, the Vice President shall advance to the next higher office to complete the remainder of the unexpired term.

Section 2. The Executive Committee shall fill a vacancy occurring in the offices of Vice President, Secretary or Treasurer by appointment to complete the remainder of the unexpired term. Consent of the appointee shall be obtained by the Executive Committee before the appointment is made.

ARTICLE XII - PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

The professional conduct of all members of the Group shall be consistent with the highest standards of honesty, integrity, loyalty to employer, objectivity, truthfulness, and diligence in the performance of their duties and responsibilities. The President shall appoint, as situations arise, a committee of three (3) to five (5) full members, as defined herein, for the handling of complaints against members and investigations thereof.

PRESIDENT

RESPONSIBILITIES

The President serves a one-year term.

The duties and responsibilities shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

- To preside at all Executive Committee and membership meetings of the Group.
- To develop a working knowledge of the Bylaws and Operations Manual and enforce the Bylaws of the Virginia ACL User's Group.
- To appoint all committee chairpersons and committee members.
- To appoint an Operational Review Committee to perform an annual review of the Group's financial accounts and records. The Annual Review Report shall be communicated to the Group membership. (See Operational Review Committee agreed upon procedures.)
- To establish Group goals with input from other officers and committee chairpersons.
- To identify and provide services to meet the needs of the membership.

VICE PRESIDENT

RESPONSIBILITIES

The Vice President is elected to a one-year term and reports to the President. The duties and responsibilities shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

- To perform the duties of the President in the absence of same.
- To coordinate the activities of those committees reporting to the Vice President.
- To advise and assist the President in staffing the committees.
- To attend Executive Committee meetings.
- To assist in identifying and providing services to meet the needs of the membership.
- To develop a working knowledge of the Bylaws and Operations Manual.
- To perform other duties as may be assigned by the President.
- Oversee activities of the Program Committee

SECRETARY

RESPONSIBILITIES

The Secretary is elected for a one-year term and reports to the President. The duties and responsibilities shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

- Conduct the correspondence of the Group including: mailing notices of all regular and special meetings, distributing meeting minutes, and other correspondence as necessary.
- Keep minutes and record the proceedings of all meetings of the Group and Executive Committee, and preserve all records and letters of continuing value to the Group in a permanent file.
- Maintain the organizational membership roster and help reconcile the roster to dues paid to the Treasurer as of December 31 each year.
- To develop a working knowledge of the Bylaws and Operations Manual.

TREASURER

RESPONSIBILITIES

The Treasurer is elected to a one-year term and reports to the President. The duties and responsibilities shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

- Maintain records of the Group's funds and financial transactions.
- Establish and require compliance with procedures for the receipt, disbursement and proper accountability of Group funds.
- Report to the general membership each regularly scheduled meeting on the financial condition of the Group.
- Invest excess funds as directed by the Executive Committee.
- File required financial documents or other legal documents with the Internal Revenue Service.

Expenditure Approval Procedures

The Treasurer can approve and pay reasonable Group expenditures under $100.

Expenditures in excess of $100 require the approval of the Treasurer and one other Executive Committee member. Due to the geographic distribution of the officers, this second approval may be via e-mail or fax. The Treasurer must disclose the expenditures to the Executive Committee during his report. The Committee will approve the expenditures retroactively.

The Treasurer may disburse funds in excess of $100 for an event (i.e. quarterly meeting) expenditure if an approved budget exists. The Treasurer may pay a quarterly meeting coordinator's request for expenditure of funds and exceed a seminar budget line item as long as the total net expenditures approved have not been exceeded.

Seminar Procedures

Each quarterly meeting coordinator will submit an expenditure budget for approval to the Executive Committee prior to the quarterly meeting date. The Executive Committee will review and approve an expenditure worksheet for each quarterly meeting event.

Basis of Accounting

The Treasurer maintains the financial records on a modified accrual basis. All dues/seminar fees are posted in the year received (cash basis). Only significant known receivable and payable transactions are posted at the reporting date, i.e.

1. Accounts receivable from an accounting firm for reimbursement of seminar costs, or
2. Expenditure commitment for a fall seminar event.

Application fee revenues received in the current year for a subsequent year are not adjusted to a prepaid account at the reporting date.

The standard reports shall consist of:

- a) a comparative balance sheet providing beginning of calendar year balances and reporting date balances.
- b) an income statement for the period being reported on.

The form of the income statement report is approved by the Executive Committee and can be revised if needed.

OPERATIONAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

OBJECTIVES

To arrange an Operational Review of Group records as soon as possible after the close of the calendar year and submit a report of findings to the Executive Committee no later than March 31 for the year just concluded.

STRUCTURE

This committee shall be appointed by the President and no member of this committee shall be a member of the Executive Committee.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Web Master:

- Upload updates to the web site.
- Inform officers of the changes.

Web Designer:

- Develop web pages that are professional in appearance.
- Include information that represents and communicates the interest of the group members.

Web Developer:

- Work with Designer in developing the web page.
- Test accuracy of data and data links.

PROCEDURES FOR CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION (CPE) PROGRAMS

PURPOSE: To achieve compliance with section 300 of the 'Statement on Standards for Continuing Professional Education (CPE) Programs' jointly issued by the AICPA and NASBA on January 19, 2001.

1. Program Development--Program developers shall document the learning objectives, knowledge level, prerequisites (if any) for each planned program in the Program announcement. Program presenters shall be qualified in the subject matter and be knowledgeable in instructional design. All program materials shall be accurate, current and meet program objectives.

2. Program Presentation--Program announcements shall inform participants about objectives, prerequisites, level of knowledge, content, advance preparation (if any), special teaching methods (if any), CPE hours and fields of study, and special administrative policies. Appropriate individuals shall be encouraged to attend. Instructors shall be qualified and evaluated along with the quality of the program and appropriateness of the facilities. At the conclusion of the training session, evaluations should be obtained to assess if learning objectives and outcomes were met.

3. Program Measurement--CPE credit shall be given for formal learning that maintains or increases knowledge. 50 minutes shall equal 1 CPE contact hour. The shortest program shall be 1 contact hour, with one-half CPE credit increments (equal to 25 minutes) are permitted after the first credit has been earned. Self-study CPE must be based on the pilot test of the average completion time. Instructors shall be given CPE for their initial preparation time up to two times the presentation hours.

4. CPE Reporting--Certificates shall be provided to participants indicating the participant's name, course title, date and location of course, CPE hours and field of study. The following records should be maintained for five years by the CPE Sponsor:

- records of participation
- Dates and location
- Instructor names and credentials
- Number of CPE hours
- Results of program evaluations
- Evidence of compliance with responsibilities set forth under these standards
- Information to be retained by developers includes copies of program materials, evidence that the program materials were developed and reviewed by qualified parties, and a record of how CPE credits were determined.
